

"The World Isn't Always Round" by Robert Ladislav Derr

The Moreau Art Galleries and the Department of Art (Saint Mary's College) is excited to announce the opening of three solo exhibitions running from January 22-February 19, 2010:

Maine-based artist Katrine Hildebrandt will debut her new drawing installation entitled "Above, Below, and Within." Using symbols from information visualization in combination with her quirky, gestural drawing style, Katrine's mixed media drawings and installations investigate these systems through a philosophical lens. Little Theatre Gallery will feature painter Cara Erskine's solo show, "Waldo." Ms. Erskine received her MFA in Painting and Printmaking from Yale University, and after a few years in New York City, she relocated to Pittsburgh, PA to teach and continue her studio practice. "Light, storms, and the expansive landscape" are a continual source of inspiration for her paintings. Hammes Gallery will feature Robert Ladislav Derr's "The World Isn't Always Round"— a multichannel video installation and series of photographs illustrating the artist as influential in shaping culture and pushing society forward. In his words, "The artist, a dreamer, an autonomous individual, is essentially boundless, which enables for a constant creative flux. With the artist continuously propelling culture and society forward, Derr postulates just one of many examples, where would society be without Leonardo da Vinci's sixteenth century sketches of the human anatomy, architecture, and inventions?"

OPENING RECEPTION: FRIDAY, JANUARY 22 FROM 5-7PM.

The Moreau Art Galleries are located in the Moreau Center for the Arts on the Saint Mary's College campus. All events are free and open to the public. Gallery hours are 10am-4pm, Monday through Friday.

<http://www.moreauartgalleries.com>

<http://www.katrinehildebrandt.com>

<http://www.caraerskine.com>

<http://home1.arts.ohio-state.edu/~derr34/>